Senator Platt (Conn.) said that he was not now a member of that committee, and that he could not sign the minority report, but as a the old fire-cater, Henry S. Foote, is former member thereof, he wish d to state that he fully concurred in the report.

A bill to abolish all tolls on the Louisville and Portland canal after band instead of a pair of untested bai. July 1st, 1880, was read a third time and passed. A bill to provide additional accommodations for the congressional West Virginie, instructed for Grant, library was taken up and discussed, but at the expiration of the morning hour went over without action.

The senate then respined consideration of the Kellogg-Spofford resolutions, Senator Hampton (S. C.) having the floor.

Senator Hampton (S. C.) said he discuss the matter on generally recognized principles of justice and right, endeavoring to tree himself cases, and this was one, where the senators should lay aside sectional yesterday. Bayard and Thurman will prejudices and party allegiance. He did not impute to Mr. Spofford or his friends any improper motives and therefore he was pained to differ from them and from his party with Tilden for a number of hours the associates with whom he held so other day.
